A MESSAGE FROM THE DEPARTMENT ADJUTANT

Welcome to The American Legion, Department of Connecticut. We hope your association with The American Legion as an employee will be continuing and enjoyable.

As an employer, The American Legion understands its relationships and responsibilities to you as an employee. However, relationships and responsibilities are mutual and not exclusive. Therefore, we believe that each employee shares a responsibility to the employer - The American Legion, Department of Connecticut. So that each of us understands this responsibility and relationship, this manual is being provided to you.

The responsibilities of The American Legion to its employees are also outlined in other manuals.

The American Legion is the largest veterans service organization in the world, and in Connecticut, and is proud of its staff. We realize as a new employee, The American Legion may seem complex. Primarily, we are a non-profit service organization, and this manual is to help you understand our method of fulfilling our role as an organization and as a corporation.

Welcome Aboard.

Harry R Hansen Jr

Harry R Hansen Jr
Department Adjutant

WHAT ARE THE PURPOSES OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

The American Legion has employees located at our Headquarters Office at 287 West St, Rocky Hill, CT 06067. Employees of our Service Office are located in the Newington VA Hospital at 555 Willard Ave, Newington, CT 06111. Employees of our Soldiers, Sailors and Marines Fund and Treasurers office are located at 864 Wethersfield Ave, Hartford, CT 06114. The American Legion is an organization of nearly 2 million veterans from wars in the 20th & 21st Century. In Connecticut, we have over 20,000 members. The Connecticut Department is one of 55 Departments, with one operating in each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, France, Mexico and the Philippines.

We were formed as an organization after World War I primarily as a veterans self-help, community-based organization. However, we are much more than that.

The purposes of The American Legion are set forth in the Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion, which reads as follows:

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.+

As with all employment, the more our employees know about the purposes and the work of The American Legion, the more loyal and dedicated they can expect to become. Our National Headquarters offers The American Legion Basic Training Course, which is a short, online course in the history, organization, the work and achievements of The American Legion. It is offered free of charge, and those who have not taken it are encouraged to do so. For enrollment information, contact the Department Adjutant.

I. STATEMENT OF SPECIFIC POLICIES

A. EMPLOYMENT

1. All applicants for employment will be interviewed by the Department Adjutant. For employment within the Service Division or the Soldiers, Sailors, Marines Fund, the first interview will be with the specific Department Supervisor and the second interview will be with the Department Adjutant. All applicants will file a written application which will be kept on permanent file in the Department Headquarters office.
2. All persons employed shall be subject to six months (180 days) probationary period. If, at the end of that period, it is determined that the employee's ability to perform the job are satisfactory, they will be considered career employees or otherwise they shall be dismissed.

B. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES:

It is the policy of The American Legion that it will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin, ancestry, or handicap. The American Legion employment policy includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. The American Legion will employ those applicants who possess necessary skills, education and experience, without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin, ancestry or handicap.
2. The American Legion will promote, upgrade, transfer or demote, recruit, advertise or solicit for employment without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin, ancestry or handicap.
3. The American Legion will train individuals during employment and select individuals for training without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin, ancestry or handicap.
4. No employee shall aid, abet, compel, coerce, or conspire to discharge or cause another employee to resign because of race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin, ancestry or handicap.
5. The American Legion's compensation has been established without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin, ancestry or handicap.
6. A Veteran, regardless of gender, will be given employment and promotional preference for a position in which he/she qualifies.

7. The organization is firmly committed to the use of merit and performance evaluation systems to provide fair opportunities for promotion and job development. The organization is obligated to determine the best practical job opportunity for each employee in close cooperation with him/her.
8. The organization shall apply and enforce each employment policy in a uniform and consistent manner. Each policy shall be applied equitably, regardless of differing locations, divisions or supervisors.
9. All employees are representatives of the American Legion and are expected to project a positive image of the Legion to the public and to anyone associated with the Legion. As such, employees are expected to wear appropriate business casual attire when at work. The wearing of revealing or sexually provocative clothing will not be permitted. Moreover, the following, without limitation, are examples of clothing which do not present a business-like appearance and will not be permitted: tank-tops, shirts which expose the midriff, Men's collarless shirts, shorts/skirts which do not extend below the mid-thigh, off the shoulder dresses/shirts/blouses/sweaters, sweats and exercise clothing, flip-flops or extremely casual shoes (Ex. %dellies+), and all types of dirty or ripped/ragged clothes.
10. If an employee reports for work improperly dressed, his or her supervisor will instruct the employee to return home to change clothes or will take other appropriate corrective action. Non-exempt employees will not be compensated during such time they are away from work to change. Repeated violations of this policy will be cause for disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

C. EMPLOYEE TRAINING:

D. RESIGNATION OR DISMISSAL:

1. Employees who plan on leaving the Department shall give at least two weeks advance notice to the Adjutant in writing.
2. If any employee is to be dismissed due to misconduct, improper performance of duties or any other just cause, he/she may be dismissed immediately by the Adjutant.

3. If any employee is dismissed for any reason, other than those listed above, he/she shall be given a two weeks advance notice in writing.

E. Recruitment Policy

1. In general, the organization will confine its recruitment efforts to personal referrals, Department Bulletins, relevant Internet job boards, newspaper advertisements, and recruiters/employment agencies. The Personnel Committee may grant exceptions for positions, which are difficult to fill or require specialized skills.
2. All advertising (print or Internet) must carry the words "An Equal Opportunity Employer".
3. Under no circumstances may a member of a supervisor's family be hired to work in or for the same office as the supervisor.

II. COMPENSATION

1. The Personnel Committee of The American Legion Department of Connecticut shall determine Department Compensation Policy, in consultation with the Finance Commission and the Department Treasurer. The Personnel Committee shall devise and recommend to the Department Executive Committee (DEC), a Compensation Policy in order to attract, retain and motivate employees of the Department. The Personnel Committee and the Department Treasurer shall implement the provisions of the Compensation Policy upon approval of the DEC. This compensation package does not apply to the Soldiers, Sailors and Marine Fund employees.
2. Because the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines Fund receives their funding in the form of a grant from the State of Connecticut Veterans Affairs, compensation in the form of pay raises are dependent on the size of the annual grant. When monies become available the administrator of the fund will notify the Personnel Committee chairman and at that point the Department compensation policy will take effect to determine individual pay raises.
3. The Department Compensation Policy shall specify the salary ranges for full-time positions and the hourly wages for part-time positions. Salaries and wages shall be based on the prevailing salaries and wages for positions having similar duties and responsibilities and requiring similar skills, commensurate with the financial resources of the Department available for purposes of compensation.

4. The Department Compensation Policy shall include provisions for a performance merit increase. Merit based increase in salaries are not mandated or guaranteed. Such salary increase, if granted, will be based on the funding available and will be approved by the DEC upon recommendation of the Personnel Committee in consultation with the Finance Commission and the Department Treasurer. Merit Pay refers to the determination of employee compensation, in part, on the basis of employee performance.
5. The Department may choose to reward the most productive employees for their contribution to the organization above the level normally expected of an employee in a given job classification. Merit Pay increases shall be approved by the DEC upon recommendation of the Personnel Committee in consultation with the Finance Commission and the Department Treasurer. Merit increases shall commence on the first day of the Fiscal Year. A one-time bonus may be paid for special projects.
6. The normal work day is considered seven hours a day, thirty-five hours per week. If any employee covered by the Fair Labor Standard Act is involved in work that exceeds forty hours per week, he/she will be paid overtime at one and one half times the base pay rate. All employees must have prior approval from the Adjutant before performing overtime work.
7. The American Legion's pay periods are bi-weekly. However, if the regular payday falls on a holiday, payroll will be issued on the morning of the last regular working day prior thereto.

Responsibility for Discipline

It is the responsibility of all employees to observe the policies and regulations necessary for the proper operation of the Legion.

Supervisors/Department Heads Responsibilities: supervisors/departments heads are responsible for the proper and efficient operation of their departments and for enforcing the Legion's policies and regulations. Types of Disciplinary Action: The type of disciplinary action taken will vary with the severity of the situation and may include the following measures: oral or written reprimand, demotion, suspension, dismissal, denial of pay increases or other discipline of employees for such reasons as, but not limited to, those stated herein.

The Department reserves the right to determine the appropriate disciplinary action based on the severity and individual circumstances.

- ◆ Any other conduct that the Legion deems is adverse to the best interests of the Legion.

The foregoing list is non-exhaustive and is only intended to be representative of the types of conduct for which discipline up to and including dismissal may be imposed.

This policy should be construed as a guide for employees and supervisory personnel to illustrate the Legion's general philosophy on rules of conduct and discipline.

Discipline Procedure

The Department reserves the right to determine what form of discipline, if any, is appropriate for specific employee behaviors, given the particular facts and circumstances present in each instance, and what outcome would be in the best interests of the Legion.

Whenever possible, if employee performance, attitude, work habits or personal conduct falls below a desirable level, supervisors shall inform the employee of the problem and give counsel and assistance. If appropriate and justified, a reasonable period of time for improvement may be allowed before initiating a second disciplinary action. In some instances, a specific incident may justify severe disciplinary action up to and including discharge; however, the action to be taken generally depends on the seriousness of the incident and often the whole pattern of the employee's past performance and conduct.

The following are examples of the types of discipline the Department may impose against employees at its discretion:

Written Reprimand: In situations where an oral warning has not resulted in expected improvements or where more severe initial action is warranted, a written reprimand shall be given to an employee, and a copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

Suspension: An employee may be suspended by the supervisor, subject to review by the Department Adjutant with or without pay for such reasons as misconduct, negligence, insubordination, disloyalty, unauthorized absence or other lawful reasons.

Discharge: an employee may be discharged upon the recommendation of the supervisor with the approval of the Department Adjutant (and DEC as required for certain positions).
